

Name of club	About the club	When	Where	Who can join?	Sponsors	What else you should know
African Student Union (ASU)	A club where all students regardless of ethnic background, can come and celebrate African culture, learn about Africa's rich history, and create community with The African Diaspora. Students will organize and participate in school-wide events, with dance performances, and other displays of African culture, i.e.. clothes.			All are welcome!	Mr. Spinner
Balloon Designer's Club	The balloon designer's club explore the different designs, artistic display of balloons, and other indigenous materials. The created artworks will be used to decorate venues of programs, gatherings and parties.	3:30 - 4:00 PM on Wednesdays	Room 224 (Dr Jomuad Room)	Anyone who loves arts and designs.	Dr Amador Jomuad
Banneker Book Club	We meet each quarter to discuss a book. If you don't finish the book, you can still join us!	Wednesdays at 11:45 AM on Oct 26, Dec 21, Mar. 29, and June 7	On the roof in nice weather (A327 as a back-up)	Anyone!	Ms. Berke (A327) and Mr. Carpenter (A109)	Pick up (and return) each book from Ms. Berke in A327
Banneker Drama Club	We put on a short fall production and a longer spring production for the Banneker community. We need actors, set designers, backstage help, and crew members.	Mondays and Fridays from 3:30 - 5:00 during Sept, Oct, Jan, Feb, and March	Performing Arts Room and Auditorium	Anyone who is committed to participating	Ms. Berke (A327) and Ms. Gilliam (A325)	Students who participate in drama club MUST be able to attend all rehearsals and performances.
BBAHS Dance Team	Hip hop, African, jazz, or ballet, this club combines all of these to entertain the school community. The Dance Team participates at the Pep Rally, during some schoolwide assemblies and this year will participate in some sports halftime shows.	Tuesday and Thursday: First half of lunch	Room A415 and 4th floor Commons	9-12	Ms. K. Jones-Ray Room A415	You must audition to join the team.
Debate club	Students will learn how to critically address world problems through academic research and active debating.	Advisory	Room 326	Anyone	Dr. Arndt - Sara.arndt@k12.dc.gov	This is a large time commitment and requires all day Saturday tournaments each month.

Ecorise	The student ambassadors will promote sustainable practices and design solutions to solve real world challenges.	Mondays- second half of lunch	Room 418	All students interested in taking care of Mother Earth.	Mylene Garcia- mylene.garcia@k 12.dc.gov
Embroidery Club	The student facilitator of this club leads participants in developing their hand embroidery skills. No experience and no supplies necessary!	Thursdays at lunch	A121	Anyone!	Ms. Tyson: jessica.tyson@k1 2.dc.gov
Esports	Esports is the combination of the games that students love and play with the competitiveness, teamwork, and team structure found with other scholastic team based sports. Esports affords students the ability to gain valuable life lessons and social skills that students learn in a team sport atmosphere.	TBD	A202		Mr. Spinner
Financial Literacy Club		Fridays during the 2nd half of lunch	A123		Ms. Zigmond
French Club	Promote the culture of France and the Francophonie at large. Create a community of students who love everything related to French culture and food.	Thursday at lunch time.	Room 305	Open to anyone	Sandrine Vongy (sandrine.vongy @k12.dc.gov)	We will elect the new board and officers for this school year in the second session in September.
Garden Club	The students will maintain a vegetable garden.	Wednesday	Room 418	All students interested in gardening.	Mylene Garcia - mylene.garcia@k 12.dc.gov Laura Washington- laura.washington 1@k12.dc.gov
International Club	Celebrates the cultural diversity of Banneker and the world by promoting and enhancing awareness of the interconnected nature of the world. Coordinates between representatives of affinity groups (ASU, LatinX, etc.).	Tuesdays during the second half of lunch	A111	Anyone!	Ms. Levknecht (Gailey) - email Jessica.Levknecht @k12.dc.gov

Kharisma Freedom Collective	In the legacy of Benjamin Banneker, Kharisma fosters awareness and creative solutions for the global issue of human trafficking. Slide intro and interest form here	Friday lunch	Art Room 329	All students	Mr. Irwin - brandon.irwin@k12.dc.gov
LatinX	Promote cultural awareness and express, embrace, and celebrate Hispanic cultural diversity at Banneker	Friday at lunch	A311 (Mr. Miras' classroom)	Everybody who loves Hispanic cultures or would like to know more about it.	Mr. Miras
Model UN	Model United Nations seeks to improve a student's understanding of global events, public speaking, negotiating, and interpersonal skills. It allows students to come up with their own solutions to global problems and how they can play a role in public affairs.	TBD	Either Ms. Desimone's room (A122) or Mr. Carpenter's room (A109)	Anyone!	Ms. Desimone and Mr. Carpenter, both through email.
Men of Strength Club (MOST)	Men of Strength (MOST) Clubs is the country's premier primary violence prevention program for mobilizing young men to prevent sexual and dating violence. MOST Club provides young men with a structured and supportive space to build individualized definitions of healthy masculinity.	Friday	A202	All are welcome	Mr. Spinner
National History Day	National History Day is a local and national competition. Students complete an independent research project on a topic of their choice connected to this year's theme, which is Frontiers in History: People, Places, Ideas. Projects can take the form of history papers, websites, creative performances, documentary films, or exhibit posterboards. Students may work alone or in groups.	Open advisory by appointment with Ms. Tyson	A121	Anyone!	Ms. Tyson: jessica.tyson@k12.dc.gov

National Honor Society	Students (juniors and seniors) who have a cumulative average of 3.2 are initially eligible for induction into the National Honor Society. They must demonstrate scholarship, service, leadership, and character. Meetings are Tuesdays during the second half of lunch with Ms. France (room A112).	Tuesday's second half of lunch	Room A112	Juniors and Seniors	Ms. France
Newspaper Club	Students write articles for the Banneker Train of Thought news site.	Fridays second half of lunch	A327	Anyone!	Ms. Berke (A327) clare.berke@k12.dc.gov	You must be willing to interview people you don't know, fact check, write, and publish.
Orchestra Club	The Orchestra Club is for all that have a passion for music. Anyone who plays an instrument or would like to learn is welcome to join! As a member, students will explore and develop musical abilities through performance in various genres including contemporary, classical, jazz, and folk. The group meets after school on Mondays and Thursdays from 3:15-4 PM in room B109 (Ms. France).	Mondays and Thursdays 3:15-4 PM	Room B109	All are welcome!	Ms. France
Poetry Club	The club promotes writing within the school by hosting writers and writing workshops.	15 minutes after the beginning of the lunch period on every other Wednesday	322	Anyone	Ms. Warren – whitney.warren@k12.dc.gov
Recycling club	Help ensure that the school recycles.	to be determined	322	Anyone	Whitney Warren; Ms. Garcia	This is a branch of Ecorise.
Spanish Honor Society	Promotes the learning and practice of the Spanish and culture	Mondays during lunch	A309	Students who have at least 3 semesters in Spanish. By application only	Mr. Prince Zu	Stop by my room during lunch to ask any questions you may have!
Spanish Book Club	Students meet bi-weekly to discuss their thoughts, ideas, and opinions on various Hispanic books in Spanish.	Wednesday at lunch	Mr. Miras A311 and Mr. Zu A309	Anybody who loves reading Spanish books	Mr. Miras Mr. Zu

Société Honoraire de Français (French Honor Society)	This is a member's only club for students who excel at French and desire to learn more about the language and its associated cultures.	Thursdays during Lunch	A304	Only students who have been inducted.	Mrs. Tiffani (Jones) Campbell Tiffani.Jones@k1 2.dc.gov
The Sports Analytics Club Program (SACP)	This club has nothing to do with playing a sport. What we do is use data analytics skills through the case study of sports. You will learn/enhance your coding skills using coding languages: R and Python	Monday: 3:20- 4:20	Room A415	Any student interested in coding, data science, data analytics, or sports stats.	Ms. K. Jones-Ray Room A415	Students have access to technology for club purposes.
The Thomas P. Moore Chess Club	We play chess in order to learn the game more thoroughly and socialize at the same time.	Mondays from 3:15 to 5 (?)	Room 117	Anyone	Mr. Goldfarb Come see me in room 117 Email: daniel.goldfarb@ k12.dc.gov Cell: 703/798- 5124	Come on down! Crush your opponents! Listen to good music and have a nice time socializing with your fellow chess-mates.
Yearbook Club	We create the yearbook. Students take pictures and produces content for the annual.	TBD	Room A324	Anyone	Ms. Morris marcia.morris@k 12.dc.gov	